

Bibliography for "A Heroic World War II Religious Order Chaplain, Brooklyn Born and Bred"

By Fr. Brian Jordan, OFM

Brooklyn Daily Eagle, May 16, 1948, Mass To Be Offered for Father Ternan, War Hero p.21

Cannon, Rev. Robert R. , MA, JCL, Chancellor, Archdiocese for the Military Services, Washington DC

Chateau de Servigny. Inscription of Dominic Ternan. French newspaper, June 6, 2014

Crosby, Donald. Battlefield Chaplains: Catholic Priests in World War II. University of Kansas Press: Lawrence, Kansas 1996

Doran, James Jr. , nephew of Father Dominic Ternan. His mother was the late Dorothy Ternan Doran, sister of Dominic . Phone Conversation on April 1, 2017

Fitzpatrick, Daniel, SJ. Spiritual Moderator of the Brooklyn Prep Alumni Association at Fordham University. Email correspondence on March 28, 2017

Fordham Hall of Fame (veterans and graduates.) Induction of First Lieutenant Dominic Ternan, O.F.M. in the class of 2008 Forever Fordham sponsored by Fordham University Alumni Association

Holy Name Province. Provincial Annals, vol. IV, no. 8, October, 1944. Necrology: "Lieut. Dominic Ternan, O.F.M., Chaplain in the Army of the United States" pp.383-388

Holy Name Province. Provincial Annals, vol. VI, no. 7, July, 1948 Chaplain's Remains Laid to Rest in Paterson, pp. 355-358

Kane, Patrice M., Head of the Archives and Special Collections, Fordham University-Rose Hill Campus, Bronx, NY. Ms. Kane provided the digital copy of the 1927 "Ram" yearbook featuring Dominic's graduation picture, his accomplishments and other meaningful photos. In addition, Ms. Kane provided a digital copy of Fordham's special World War II Memorial Mass and Monument Presentation. It took place on December 14, 1946 and was entitled We'll Sing Our Battle. Both Archbishop Francis Spellman and President Harry S. Truman participated in the ceremonies in which Dominic's name was included.

Library of Congress, Prints and Photographs Online Catalog, Chaplain Dominic Ternan of New York City, Catholic, who is completing his course at the US Army chaplain school, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. April, 1942

Mullen, Kevin, O.F.M., Ph.D. Research Notes on Father Dominic Ternan, O.F.M.

at the Franciscan Center for Social Advocacy, Siena College, Loudonville, NY, January, 2007

National Catholic Register, "Recalling D-Day, 70 Years Ago, June 6, 2014" article by Joseph Pronechen and remarks by Archbishop for the Military Services, Timothy Broglio. Article verifies that Father Ignatius Maternowski, O.F.M Conv. was the first Franciscan to be killed in the line of duty in World War II on June 6, 1944

New York Daily News, photo with caption of Requiem Mass for Dominic Ternan, O.F.M. at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 135 West 31st. Street, NY, NY, May 18, 1948 Poling, Dr. Daniel. "Strong Men of God," Sign 24 (May 1945) p.548 (Daniel is the father of Rev. Clark Poling, a Dutch Reformed minister who was one of "The Four Chaplains" who died together aboard the U.S.A.T. Dorchester, on February 2, 1942)

St. Bonaventure University, Olean, NY Rev. Dominic Ternan, O.F.M., class of 1937, ROTC Hall of Fame Inductees for 2000. Dominic is memorialized on a monument that recognized those who made the highest sacrifice in defense of their country

Willert, Lindsay. Registrar, Xavier High School, 30 W. 16th Street, New York, New York (email correspondences, April 4 and April 6, 2017)